
Whirinaki Whare Taonga offers a variety of exhibiting opportunities from smaller artist in feature options to major exhibitions. We welcome submissions of artists' work and curatorial proposals for group exhibitions on an on-going basis. Submissions are now being accepted and reviewed by the exhibitions panel.

SUBMITTING A PROPOSAL

A proposal provides an outline and details of an exhibition or project. It should include:

- A short biography or curriculum vitae.
- A description of your past and current art practice or interests.
- An exhibition/project outline. Explain your exhibition concept, purpose and ideas. Make sure your description helps to ensure that the panel gets a clear sense of your exhibition and what it would contain. Some other things to consider:
 - Why you would like to exhibit at Whirinaki Whare Taonga
 - What benefit or relevance it would have to the local community.
 - Practicalities such as preferred dates, dimensions, number of works.
 - Who your work responds to i.e. Key audiences.
 - Where have you exhibited recently – especially in Wellington.
- Images of your work, either dropped to reception or emailed in jpeg form.
- A physical description of the work you would like to exhibit (approximate dimensions, medium etc.).
- An estimation of resources that would be required should the exhibition be approved i.e. display requirements, plinths
- Any possible workplace, health and safety issues with the artworks.
- Time frame. When you would like this exhibition to happen.

PROPOSAL ASSESSMENT

Your proposal will be assessed by the exhibitions panel for its relevance and potential interest to local and broader audiences.

Whirinaki Whare Taonga aims to develop an entertaining and stimulating program of exhibitions by local and other artists who work across different media to present a range of notions and ideas from various and diverse contemporary, social and cultural perspectives. The Gallery is particularly interested in exhibitions that:

- Encourage visitation and community use of the Gallery
- Encourage community access & engagement through the development of education and public programs

PLEASE NOTE THAT...

- The Gallery plans its exhibition program up to two years ahead
- Exhibitions panel gets together monthly to consider new proposals.
- Proposals and portfolios will be retained by the Gallery for future reference and possible inclusion in the Gallery program at a later date. Please do not send original documents.
